

Below is a press release I found for the 1976 race.
Back then the entry fee was only 2 dollars. Adjusting for inflation this is $10.66 in 2023 dollars. Still a pretty good deal.

CORONADO HALF MARATHON

A BICENTENNIAL CELEBRATION

JULY 5 1976

The Coronado Recreation Department, City of Coronado will sponsor an AAU sanctioned running half marathon of thirteen miles on Monday, July 5. The course has been certified by the AAU. "The divisions include Junior; 15 and under; Open, 16 to 39; Masters, 40 and over; and Woman's Open. Women may run in any division according to age,

The entry fee is $2.00 for each participant for pre-registration., A fee of $2.50 will be charged at the line. The half marathon begins at 7:00 a.m. at the Coronado Woman's Club, 1735 Strand Way. Trophies for first through fifth places and medals sixth through fifteenth in the Masters and Open Divisions. Trophies for first through fifth place will be awarded in the Junior and Woman's Open Divisions. Shirts will be awarded to the first 100 finalists.